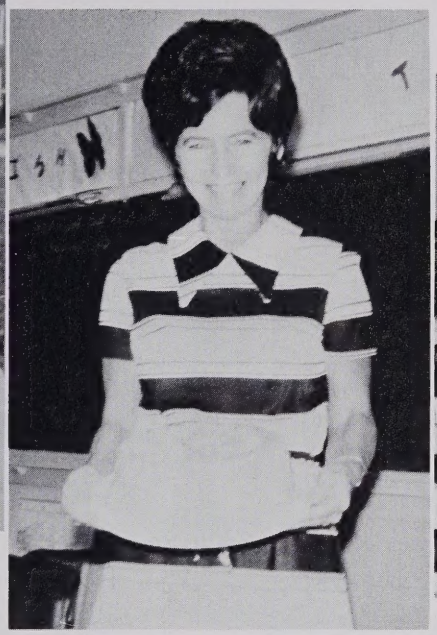
When you are old and gray and full of sleep,
And nodding by the fire, take down this book,
And slowly read, and dream of the soft look
Your eyes had once, and of their shadows deep;

How many loved your moments of glad grace,
And loved your beauty with love false or true . . .

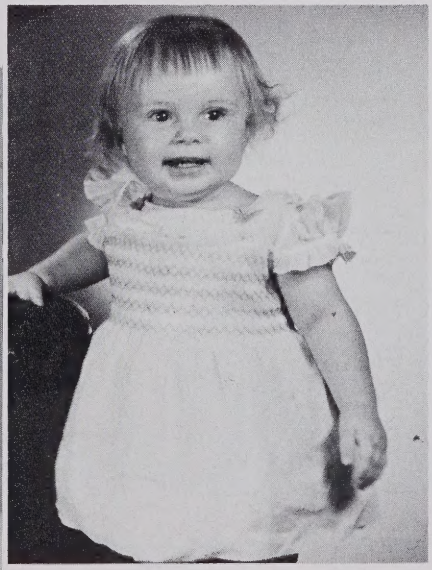
And bending down beside the glowing bars,
Murmur, a little sadly, how Love fled
And paced upon the mountain overhead
And hid his face amid a crowd of stars.

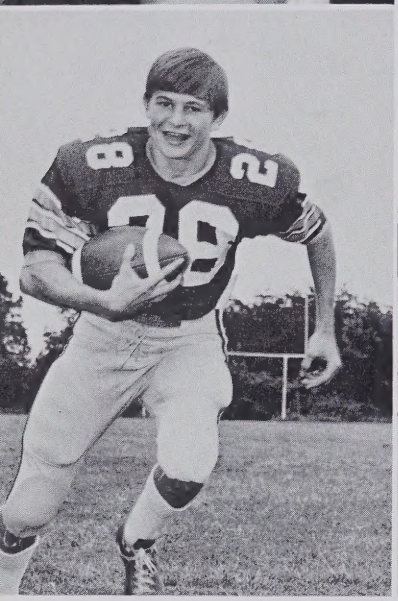
BURKE COUNTY
PUBLIC LIBRARY

We smile.



We start out walking . . .





And learn to run.

Yes, we've only just begun.

Don't bother a bit, you are only a dream you are having,
And if when you wake your symptoms are not relieved,
That is only because you harbor a morbid craving
For belief in the old delusion in which you have always believed.

There once was a time when you thought you would understand
Many things, many things, including yourself, and learn Greek,
But light changes old landscape, and your own hand
Makes signs unseen in the dark, and lips move but do not speak,

For given that vulture and vector which is the stroke
Of the clock, absolute, on the bias of midnight, memory
Is nothing, is nothing, not even the memory of smoke
Dispersed on windless ease in the great fuddled head of the sky.

And all recollections are false, and all you suffer
Is only the punishment thought appropriate for guilt
You cuddle and kiss, and wish you had the crime for,
For the bitterest tears are those shed for milk—or blood—not spilt.

There is only one way, then, to make things hang together,
Which is to accept the logic of dream, and avoid
Night air, politics, French sauces, autumn weather,
And the thought that, on your awaking, identity may be destroyed.

CLASSES

SENIORS!
FRESHMEN

In the heart of old Burke County,
Neath the sky so blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater
Glorious to view.
Lift the chorus; speed it onward;
May it never fail.
Hail, to thee our Alma Mater,
G.A.S. all hail!

Classic in her broad proportion,
Look she proudly down,
Reared against the arch of heaven
With the stars for crown.
Lift the chorus; speed it onward;
May it never fail.
Hail, to thee our Alma Mater,
G.A.S. all hail!

CLASS PROPHECY

by
Loretta Elizabeth Elder

Welcome to the world of astrology. Let us gaze into the future by means of the stars and see what the fates of the members of the great Senior Class of 1972 will be.

The first sign of the zodiac is Aries the Ram. Under this extra-ordinary sign I see world-famous actresses MEDA SMITH and JUNE MILLER making their way on Broadway and WALTER POOLE receiving the World's Safest Driver Award. Joint owners of Playboy International are JOHNNY BLACK and RICHARD STILLWELL, while MISS DENESE CAUSBY, famous beauty queen, receives the title of "Sweetheart of the Universe".

Next comes the terrific sign of Taurus. The ruling planet of Taurus is Venus, whose name means the goddess of love. And lovers they are! RAY FANN, future professional cassanova can vow to that. They are also music lovers, such as DELEA BRITTAIN, a future concert pianist and RITA GREENE, who will be a popular dancer. Also under Taurus I see MARILYN TAYLOR, a promising engineer's wife and her twin, CAROLYN, whom I predict to be a very efficient telephone operator, and JIMMY HALLYBURTON, a general in Uncle Sam's Army.

Our groovin' Geminis are: DEBRA CRAWLEY, future stenographer; JUDY FARRIS, America's best-liked elementary teacher; and LIBBY ORDERS and GWEN KESTNER, co-owners of a famous cocktail lounge where TERRI BOWMAN is head waitress. The nightly entertainment act, managed by HAROLD SHADE, features Super Soul Man SHERRILL LYTLE, who dances and sings to his own kind of music. Another great Gemini is SUZANNE COURTNEY whose fate seems to be the title of designer for a company which produces the latest fashions for big and tall men only.

The stars are beginning to shine very brightly as I predict the futures of our marvelous Moon Children who include RITA DUCKWORTH and SUSAN MORRISON, executive secretaries; JERRY CAUSBY, heavyweight champion; and ANDY O'NEIL and JUANITA RUTHERFORD, employees of Boone's Farm, Inc. I see DONALD NORMAN, a star himself, made famous by his hard-rock band and NEDIA JONES as the owner of a boutique specializing in the most far-out fashions. SARAH MILLER, one of our msot ambitious Moon Children, will be a foreign language intepreter for the U.N.

Now for the leaders, those born under the sighn of Leo. Future leaders of the Women's Liberation Movement are: MARTHA BUCKNER, President; LINDA PATTON, editor of Women's Lib National Magazine, "MS" with WANDA JORDAN, VICKIE POWELL and WANDA CARSWELL, chairmen of the Male Control Department; DIANNE MOSES, first female Surgeon General; DEBRA POTEAT, first female professional basketball star; and SYLVIA CRISP, a nationally-known marriage counselor. Our Leo men are future leaders too. ROGER LONON is to be in charge of fun(d)-raising for an important transportation enterprise owned by TONY McLEAN and DONALD CRESWELL, where PAUL MOORE is top engineer and HARLAN GREENE designs yachts for the filthy rich.

Under the valiant sign of Virgo, I see RHONDA WOOD and PAT YANCEY as stewardesses on the private jet of America's first 28-year old President, JAMES REID SIMPSON. Virgo's secret talents are executive capabilities which will account for FRANKIE HULLETE'S future position as Secretary of the Interior and LARRY BUFF's position as Secretary of the Treasury. I also see some more stars blazing as ANITA SUMMERS will make her debut on television as a female Flip Wilson with VANESSA AVERY as her Soul Sister sidekick. Also appearing on T.V. will be COLUMBUS CARPENTER, superstar for the San Francisco Forty-Niners.

Libra, the seventh sign of the zodiac, brings us some well-known personalities such as EDWIN NORMAN, an executive for a leading automobile company where KEITH PRITCHARD designs and paints super-sports cars with CHUCK LEONARD and EARL BYRD as his assistants and SUSAN GREENE as his private secretary. Other lively Libras are: BELINDA BOWMAN, who, along with her husband, owns a chain of well-known supermarkets and LEWIS FALLS, who will be a genius professor at Yale University.

The Stars of Scorpio show me that EDDIE JORDAN, the future novelist, will be publishing his first best-seller, THE STORY OF LOVE, which will be made into a movie starring RANDY KEEVER and GINGER WISE along with RUTH HENSON and JERRY PRITCHARD–all world-famous for their fine acting abilities. REGINA PRITCHARD will be the executive producer of this million dollar movie.

Our ninth zodiac sign is Sagittarius the Archer. The Class of '72 produced quite a few winners under this sign, specifically DOUG PITTS, nuclear scientist for NASA; PATRICIA CONLEY, nightclub singer; and DALE ROBINSON, manufacturer of high-power dune buggies. WILLIAM FARRIS, ANDY POLLARD, and SIDNEY HOUCK will be famous adventurers exploring the unknown areas of the world, while RAY McELRATH will own a futuristic monorail system.

Our little group of Capricorns is small but significant. PAM McFALLS is predicted to be a college professor who raises basketball stars as a constructive past-time; LINDA AULDREDGE can be seen doing T.V. commercials for Close-Up toothpaste; and CINDY WILSON plays duets with Liberace.

This is the Age of Aquarius and what great Aquarians we have in our Senior Class. For example: future scientist, MARGARET HUTCHINS and Major DAVID SCOTT of the U.S. Air Force. I see some more famous actresses coming into view such as, BEVERLY ANDERSON, ANGELA SMALL and KATIE WIRGHT. HATTIE WILLIAMS will be the top fashion model for Soul Stitches, Ltd. owned by LEBBIE HARDY. The stars are beginning to dim, but they finally reveal the mysterious fate of KIRBY JARRETT whom I can see receiving an Oscar for his performance in his latest X-rated movie, "Breezin' On".

Finally, there is the sign of Pisces under which I see RANDY DUCKWORTH riding his motorcycle off into the sunset in search of America. DEBBIE EPLEY and SHARON HELTON are the future owners of ice cream shops. I see JANET POWELL living in a hippie commune in California and DEBORAH PATTON is a future opera star. PATRICE ROGERS and WANDA HUFFMAN will operate a busy beauty salon in New York City, while J. D. RAMSEY will be the president of Chevrolet, Inc.

In conclusion, I would say the stars have smiled down upon us, the great Seniors of 1972, as we go out into the world to conquer, to advance, to love and make peace forever.

President, Eddie Jordan; Vice-President, Pam McFalls
Secretary and Treasurer, Judy Farris; Reporter, Ruth Henson

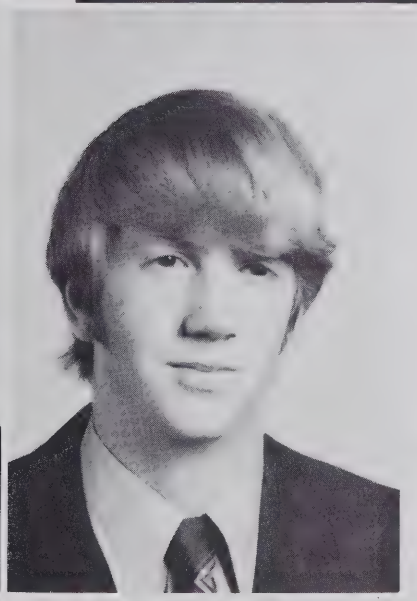
Senior Class 1972

MASCOTS
Lisa Johnson, Brent Fox

Yes, We as Seniors have only just begun. As we leave, we are excited, saddened, and frightened, for we realize these have been our happiest years, and we know not what the future holds.

Miss Beverly Anderson
"Unthinking, idle, wild, and young"

Miss Linda Auldredge
"Tis the last rose of summer left blooming alone"

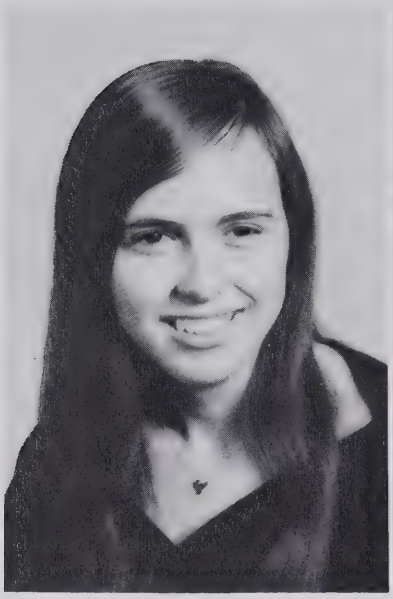


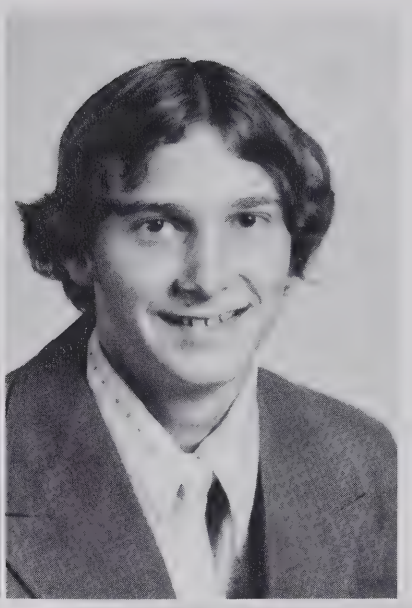
Miss Vanessa Avery
"To see, be seen, tell, and gather tales"

Mr. Johnny Black
"A good many things go around in the dark besides Santa Claus"

Mrs. Belinda Bowman
"She lightens every burden with friendship"

Miss Delea Brittain
"Do you not know I am a woman? When I think, I must speak"



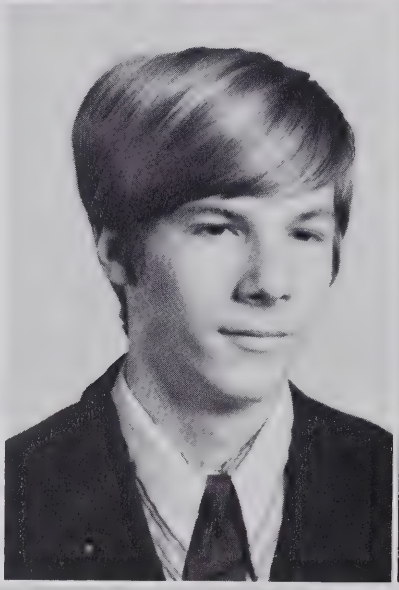


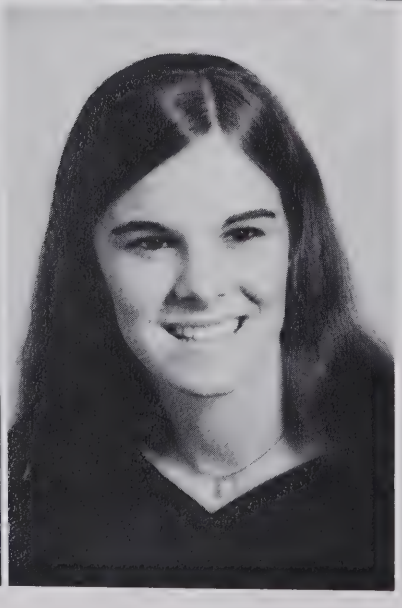
Miss Martha Buckner
"There was a star danced, and under that I was born"

Mr. Larry Buff
"His renown has been purchased, not by deeds of violence and blood, but by the diligent dispensation of pleasure"

Mr. Earl Byrd
"The gentle mind by gentle deeds is known"

Mr. Columbus Carpenter
"A man he seems of cheerful yesterdays and confident tomorrows"





Miss Wanda Carswell
"Blue were her eyes as the fairy-flax"

Miss Denise Causby
"And beauty, making beautiful old rhyme"

Mr. Jerry Causby
"The world knows only two, – that's Rome and I"

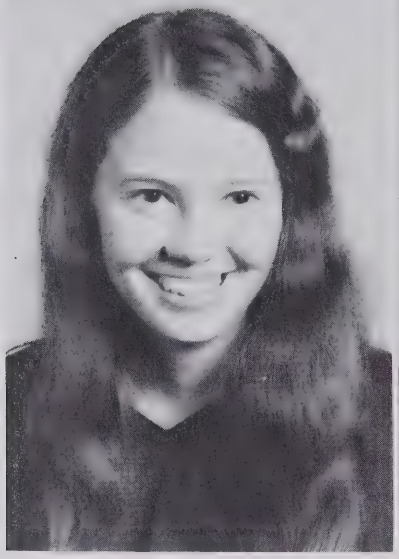
Miss Patricia Conley
"I laughed and danced and talked and sung"

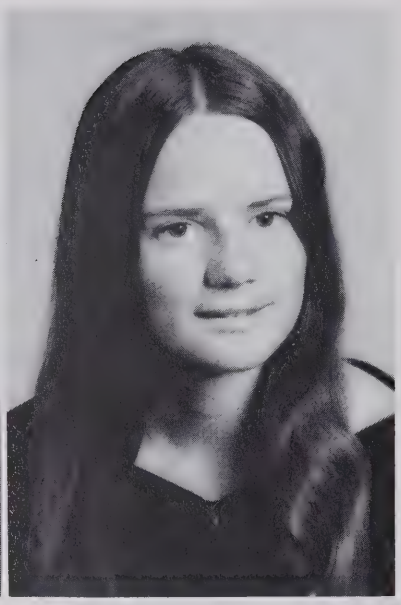
Miss Suzanne Courtney
"A happy soul, that all the way to heaven hath a summer's day"

Miss Debra Crawley
"Second thoughts, they say, are best"

Mrs. Sylvia Crisp
"Those who bring sunshine to the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves"

Mr. Randy Duckworth
"His time is forever, everywhere his place"



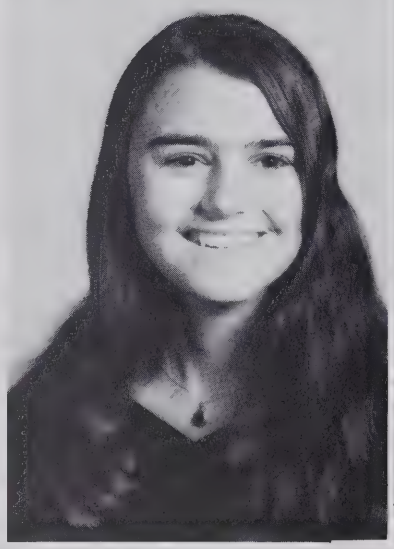


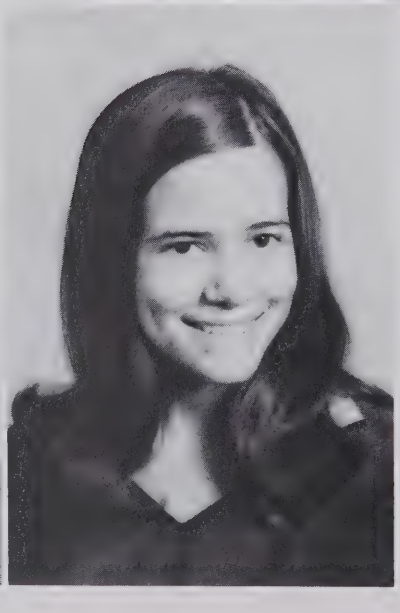
Miss Rita Duckworth
"A maid of quiet ways"

Miss Loretta Elder
"She is pretty to walk with and witty to talk with, and pleasant, too, to think on"

Miss Debbie Epley
"As happy as any in the world, for the whole world seems to smile upon her"

Mr. Lewis Falls
"Life is a jest and all things show it; I thought so once but now I know it"



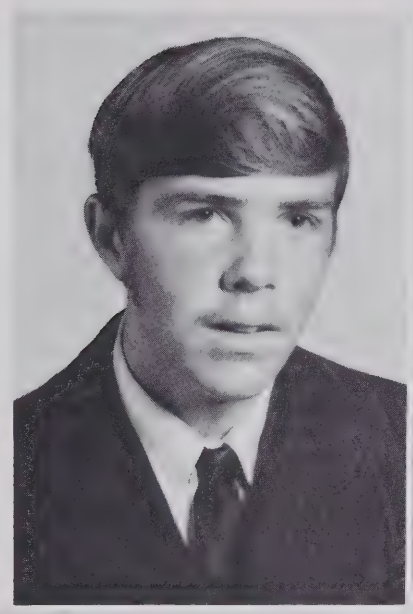


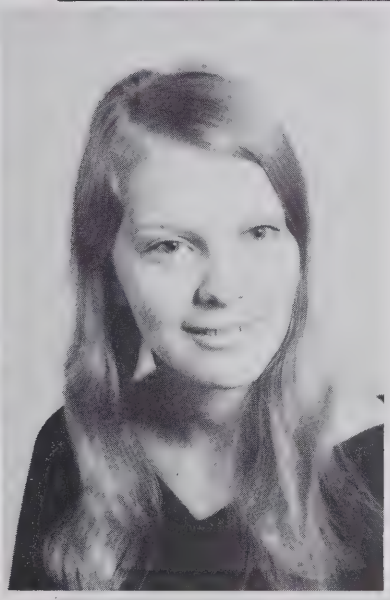
Mr. Ray Fann
"My only books were woman's looks, and folly's all they've taught me"

Miss Judy Farris
"Blushing is the color of virtue"

Mr. William Farris
"Let me live in my house by the side of the road and be a friend of man"

Mr. Harlan Greene
"A youth to whom was given so much of earth – so much of heaven"



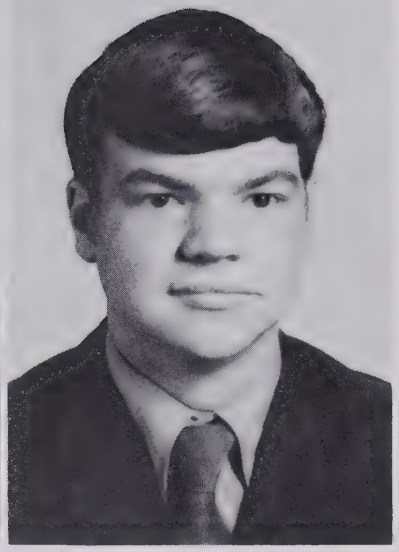


Miss Rita Greene
"Laugh and be well"

Miss Susan Greene
"Red as a rose is she"

Miss Lebbie Hardy
"Life is short and very uncertain; let us spend it as well as we can"

Miss Sharon Helton
"Full many a flower is born to blush unseen"

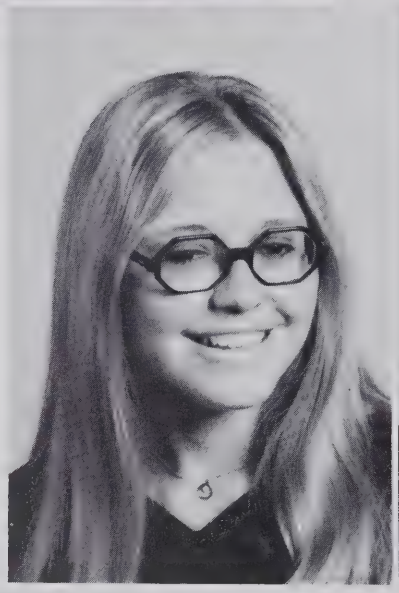


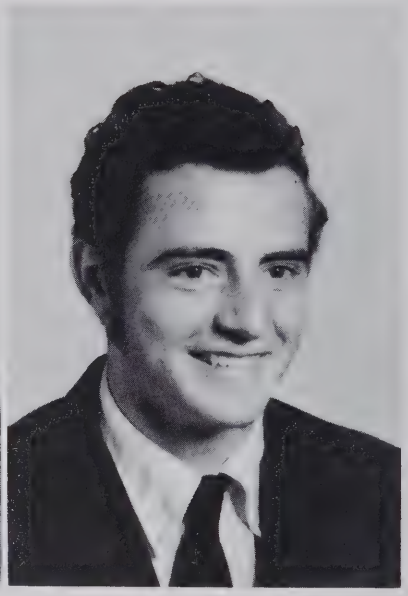
Miss Ruth Henson
"The fairest garden in her looks and in her mind the wisest books"

Mr. Sidney Houk
"A careless song, with a little nonsense in it now and then"

Miss Wanda Huffman
"She must be seen to be appreciated"

Mr. Franklin Hullette
"Nature made him, and then broke the mould"



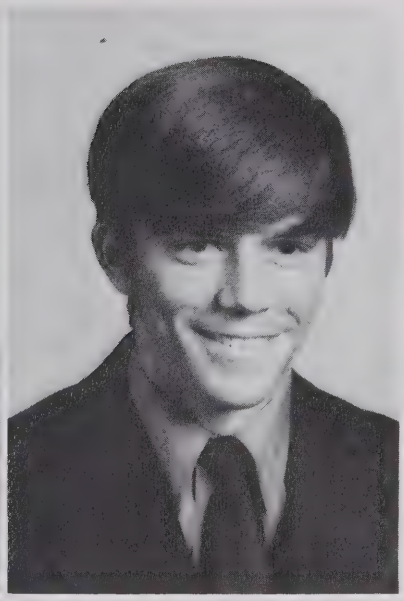


Miss Margaret Hutchins
"Intelligence, and reflection, and judgement reside in thee"

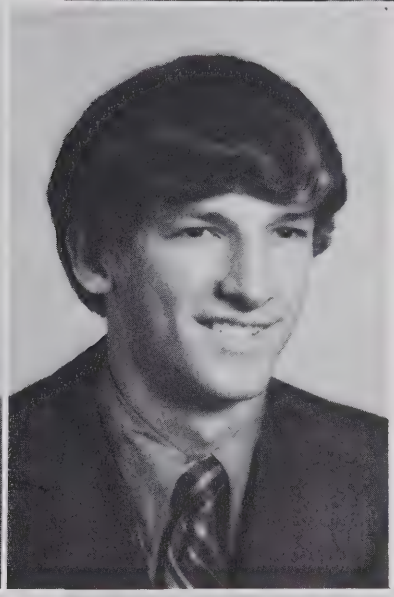
Mr. Kirby Jarrett
"Better be damned than not mentioned at all"

Miss Nedia Jones
"For the world is full of roses, and the roses full of dew"

Mr. Eddie Jordan
"I'd like to be bashful but the girls won't let me"



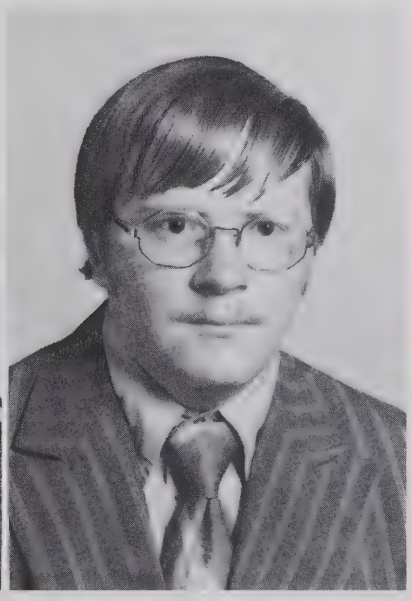
Miss Wanda Jordan
"As fresh as when the first sunrise awoke the lark in Paradise"

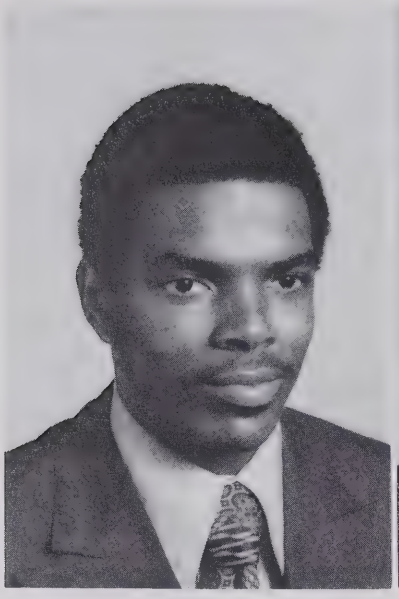


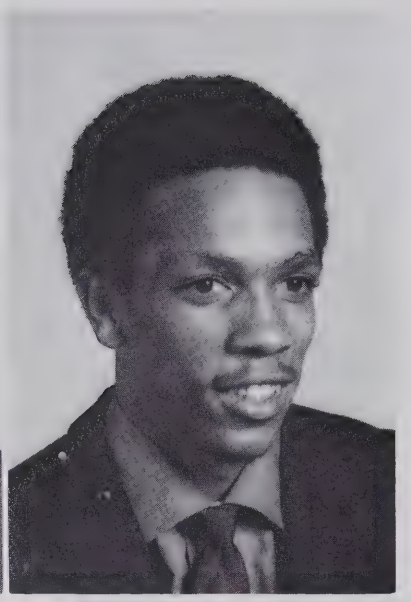
Mr. Randy Keever
"God bless us every one!" prayed Tiny Tim.

Miss Gwen Kestner
"When you walk in a field, look down lest you tramp on a daisy's crown"

Mr. Roger Lonon
"If I were a bear, and a big bear, too, I shouldn't much care if it froze or snowed"





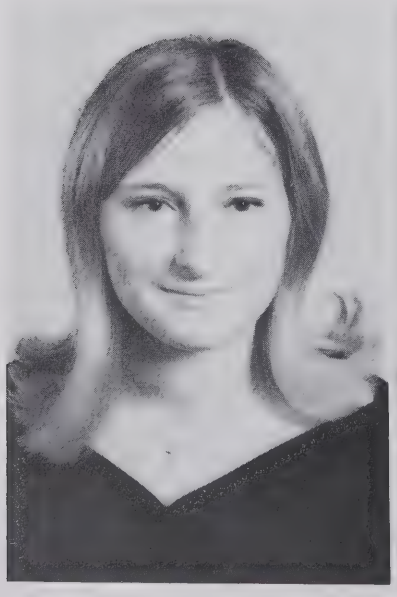


Mr. Sherrill Lytle
"I'd rather be handsome than homely; I'd rather be youthful than old"

Mr. Ray McElrath
"There is nothing worth the doing that it does not pay to try"

Miss Pamela McFalls
"The moon looks upon many night flowers; the night flower sees but one moon"

Mr. Tony McLean
"Every day is a fresh beginning, every morn is the world made new"

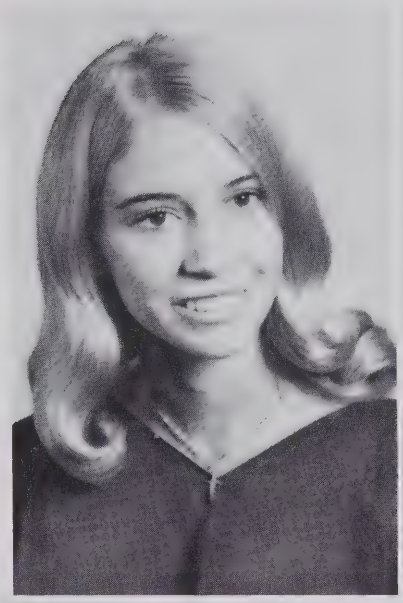


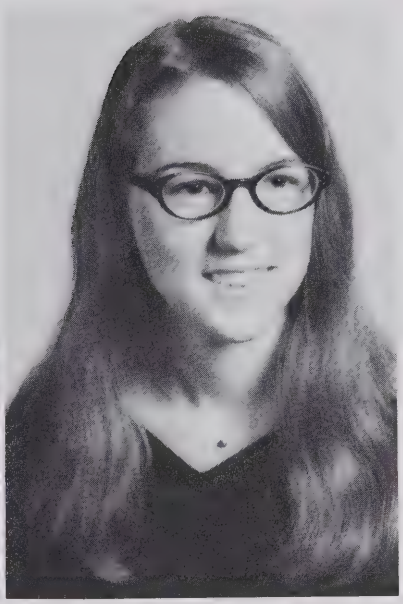
Miss Vickie McTier
"With stars and space above, and time and stars below"

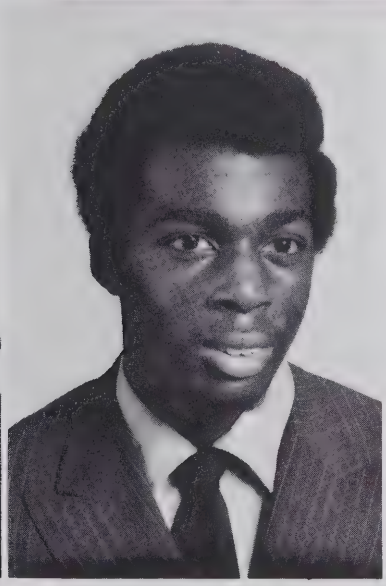
Mr. Charles Leonard
"I make the most of all that comes, and the least of all that goes"

Miss June Miller
"Laughed in the sun, and kissed the lovely grass"

Miss Sarah Miller
"Trees in their blooming, tides in their flowing, stars in their circling, tremble with song"





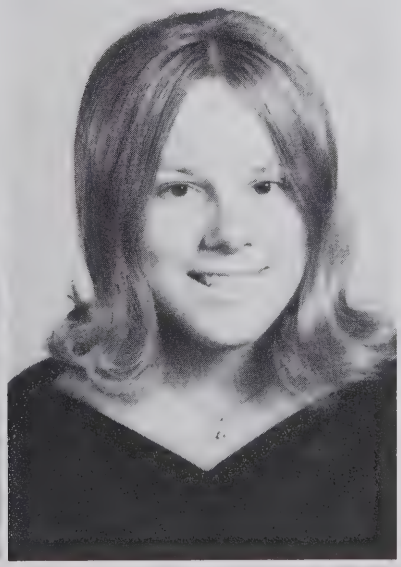


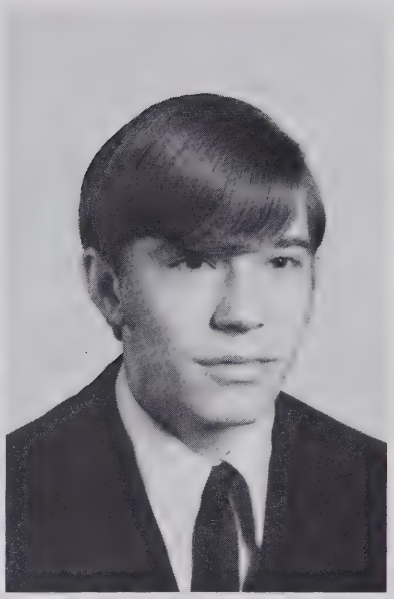
Miss Kathy Moore
"Listen; you may be allowed to hear my laughter from a cloud"

Mr. Paul Moore
"He has made a thousand friends. Yes: and, by God he will keep them"

Miss Susan Morrison
"The happiest heart that ever beat that found the common daylight sweet"

Miss Dianne Moses
"Born with the gift of laughter and a sense that the world is mad"



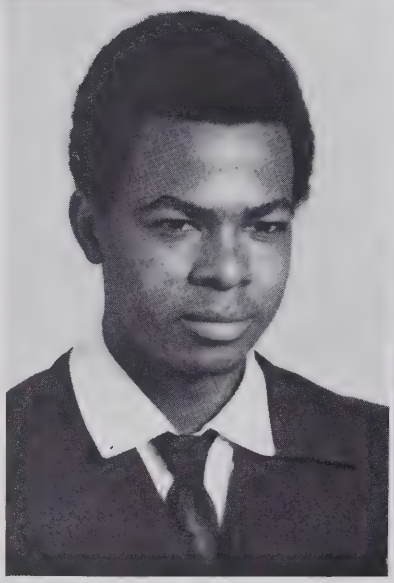


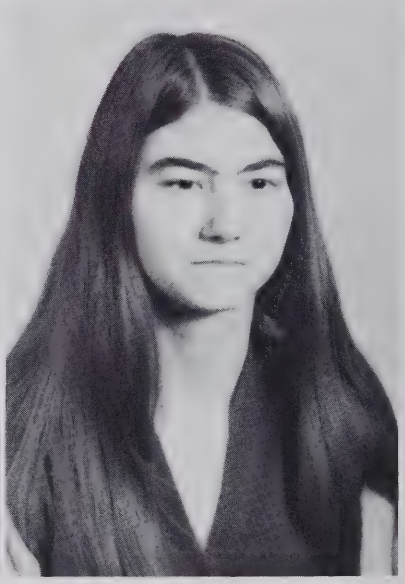
Mr. Donald Norman
"Music and women I cannot but give way to, whatever my business is"

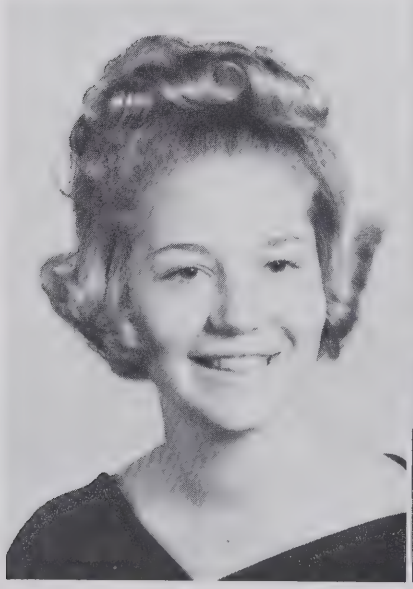
Mr. Edwin Norman
"The good die young . . . and I'm not feeling well"

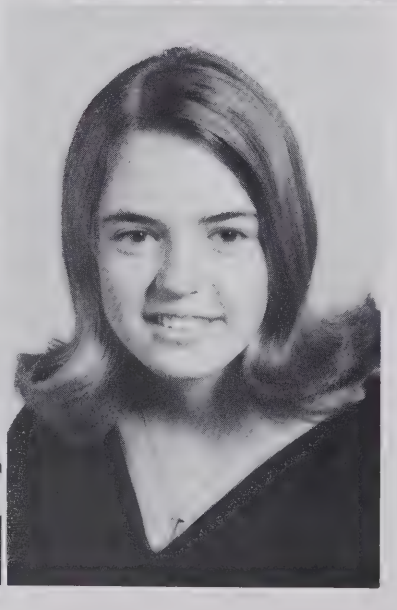
Mr. Andy O'Neil
"Lost in the spiral of his conscience, he detachedly takes rest"

Miss Libby Orders
"From a wealth of living I have proved I must be silent, if I would be loved"







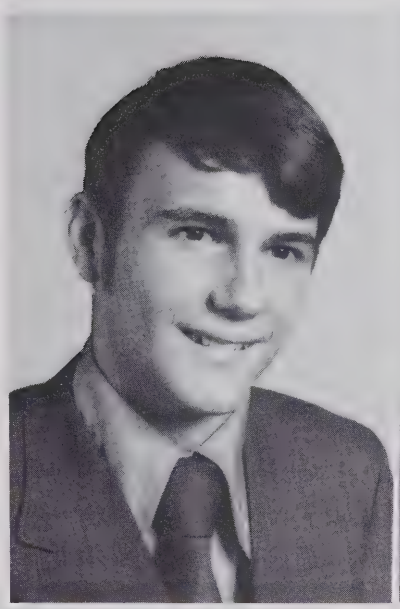


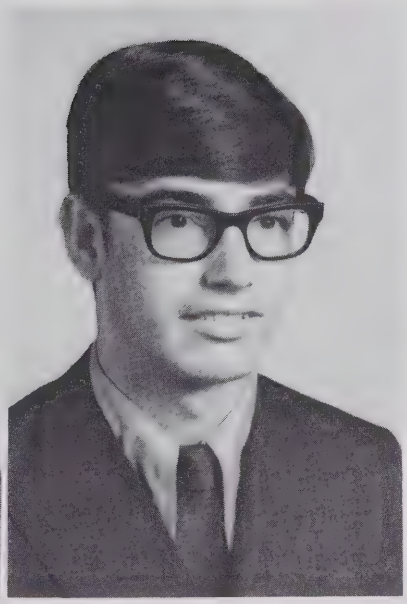
Miss Deborah Patton
"Let me go where'er I will, I hear a sky-born music still"

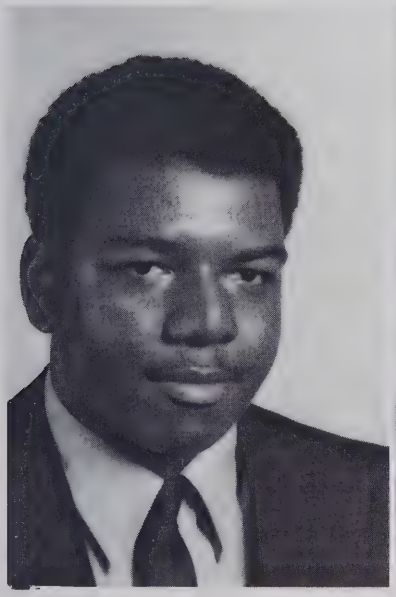
Miss Linda Patton
"There's nothing worth the wear of winning, but laughter and the love of friends"

Mr. Doug Pitts
"Thinking is but an idle waste of thought"

Mr. Andy Pollard
"I'm wicked, I am, but I can't help it"





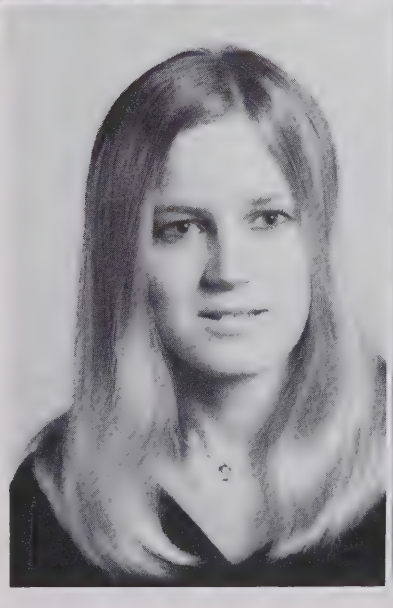


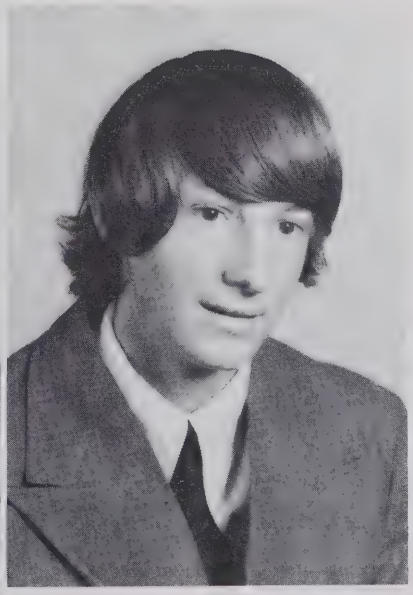
Mr. Walter Poole
"I shall never ask, never refuse, and never resign"

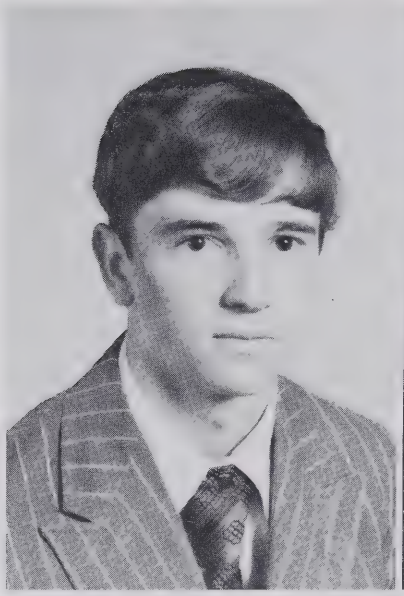
Miss Debra Poteat
"Ever fair and ever young"

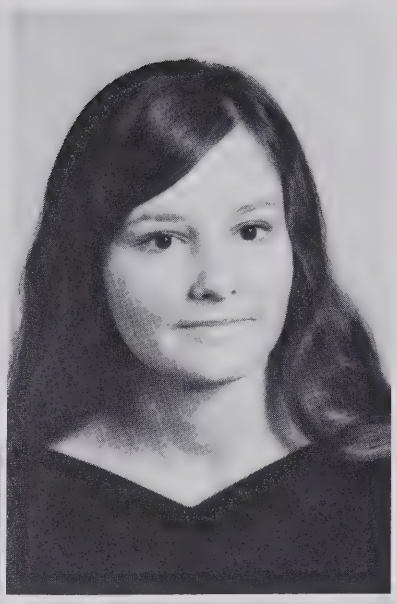
Miss Janet Powell
"Tis beauty calls, and glory shows the way"

Mr. Jerry Pritchard
"I hate nobody, I am in charity with the world"







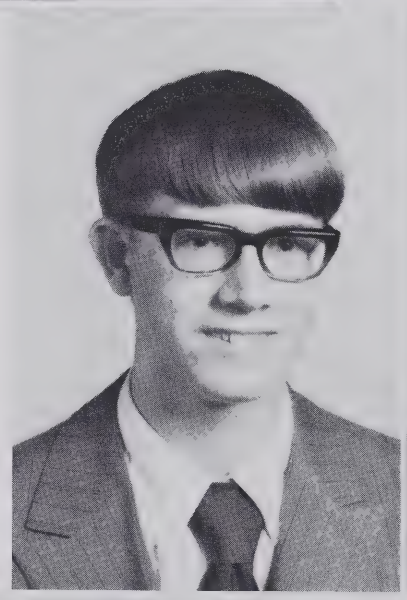


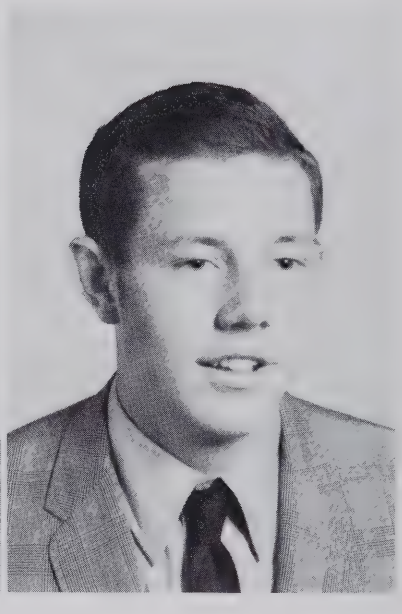
Mr. Keith Pritchard
"Good nature is more agreeable than beauty"

Miss Regina Pritchard
"High erected thoughts, seated in the heart of courtesy"

Mr. James Ramsey
"Thou hast no sorrow in thy song, no winter in thy year"

Mr. Dale Robinson
"The happiest person is the one who thinks the happiest thoughts"



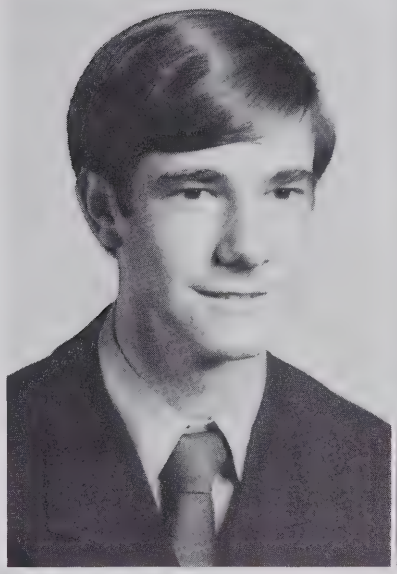


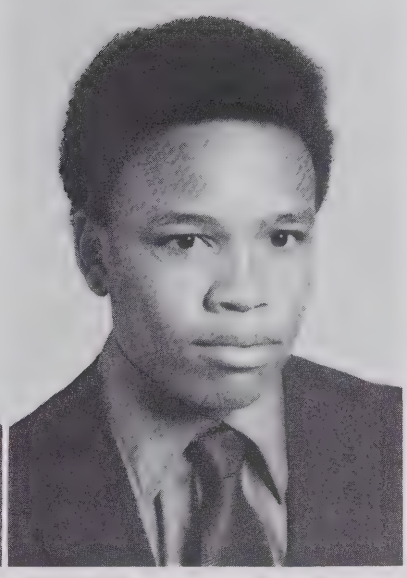
Miss Patrice Rogers
Precious things come in small packages"

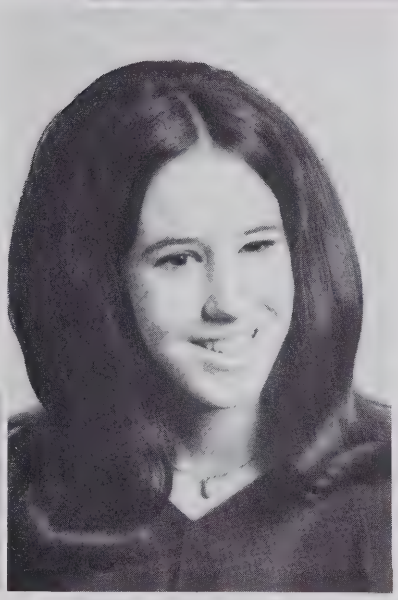
Miss Juanita Rutherford
"Don't take life so seriously. You'll never get out of it alive anyway"

Mr. David Scott
"His better doth not breathe upon the earth"

Mr. Harold Shade
"The greater the man, the greater the courtesy"





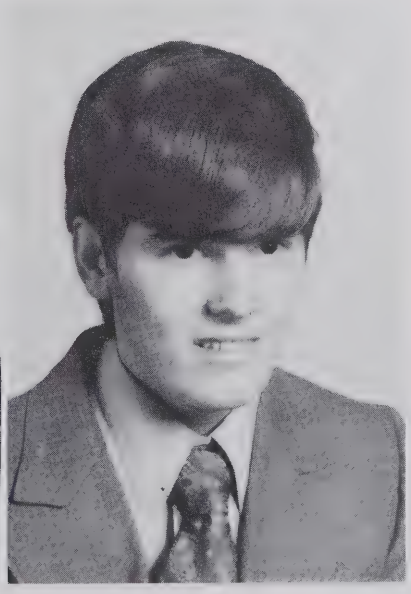


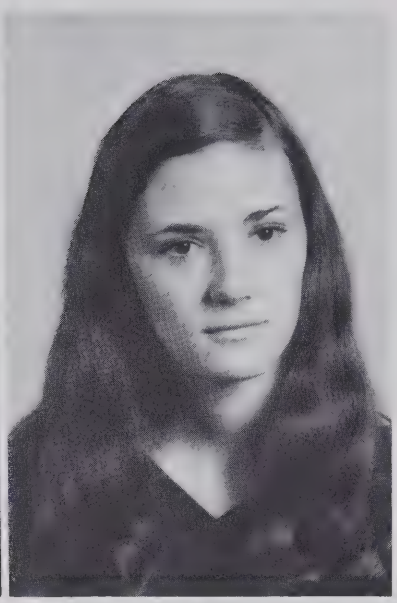
Mr. James Simpson
"The world knows nothing of its greatest men"

Miss Angela Small
"Though I walk in haste, I am never in a hurry"

Miss Meda Smith
"They are never alone that are accompanied by noble thoughts"

Mr. Richard Stillwell
"A woman would run through fire and water for such a kind heart"





Miss Anita Summers
"As merry as the day is long"

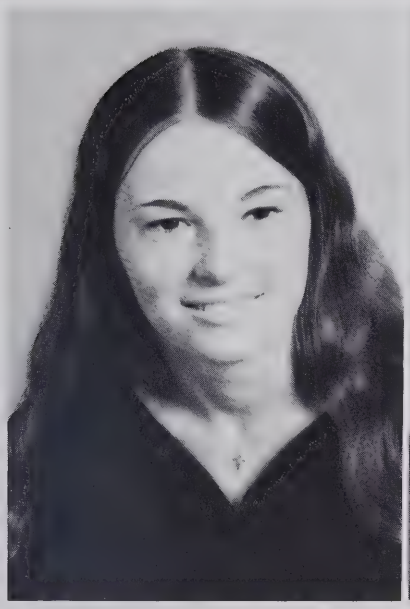
Miss Carolyn Taylor
"Early, bright, chaste as morning dew"

Miss Marilyn Taylor
"Truth from her lips prevails"

Miss Hattie Williams
"Beauty being the best of all we know"

Miss Cindy Wilson
"Thou are the star for which all evening waits"

Miss Katie Wright
"A witty woman is a treasure, a witty beauty is a power"



Miss Ginger Wise
"Greater persons are able to do great kindnesses"

Miss Rhonda Wood
"Sacrifice to the Graces"

Miss Pat Yancey
"Sweet as the primrose peeps beneath the thorn"

In Memory

Is it so small a thing
To have enjoyed the sun,
To have lived light in the spring, to have loved, to have thought, to have done;
To have advanced true friends and beat-down baffling foes?

"You're wasting your time," Doc Daneeka was forced to tell him.

"Can't you ground someone who's crazy?"

"Oh sure. I have to. There's a rule saying I have to ground anyone who's crazy."

"Then why don't you ground me? I'm crazy. Ask Clevinger."

"Clevinger? Where is Clevinger? You find Clevinger and I'll ask him."

"Then ask any of the others. They'll tell you how crazy I am."

"They're crazy."

"Then why don't you ground them?"

"Why don't they ask me to ground them?"

"Because they're crazy, that's why."

"Of course they're crazy," Doc Daneeka replied. "I just told you they're crazy, didn't I? And you can't let crazy people decide whether you're crazy or not, can you?"

Yossarian looked at him soberly and tried another approach. "Is Orr crazy?"

"He sure is," Doc Daneeka said.

"Can you ground him?"

"I sure can. But first he has to ask me to. That's part of the rule."

"Then why doesn't he ask you to?"

"Because he's crazy." Doc Daneeka said. "He has to be crazy to keep flying combat missions after all the close calls he's had. Sure I can ground Orr. But first he has to ask me to."

"That's all he has to do to be grounded?"

"That's all. Let him ask me."

"And then you can ground him?" Yossarian asked.

"No. Then I can't ground him."

"You mean there'a a catch?"

"Sure there's a catch," Doc Daneeka replied. "Catch-22. Anyone who wants to get out of combat duty isn't really crazy."

"That's some catch, that Catch-22." he observed.

"It's the best there is," Doc Daneeka agreed.
